They then run back to the trail head, turning right back onto the asphalt sidewalk.

Then they take that sidewalk to the dog park parking lot, where they enter the trail by the dog park, heading to the right. They do one loop of the dog park trail, exiting down the trail path that leads to the asphalt sidewalk.

Runners head East on the asphalt sidewalk, paralleling Mill Run Crossing and take that sidewalk until it dead ends near Glenn Rd.

Participants then re-enter Mill Run, staying to the right (running the opposite direction of the very first stretch of the race) and run back to the roundabout where the finish line is the same as the start line.
